BG DAVID A. RUBENSTEIN, FACHE, ELECTED CHAIRMAN-ELECT OF AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTHCARE EXECUTIVES

CHICAGO, March 17, 2007— Brigadier General David A. Rubenstein, FACHE, Heidelberg, Germany, has been elected Chairman-Elect of the American College of Healthcare Executives, an international professional society of more than 30,000 healthcare executives.

Rubenstein took office today at the Council of Regents Meeting during ACHE's 50th Congress on Healthcare Leadership in New Orleans. As Chairman-Elect, he will serve the first part of a three-year term in ACHE's consecutive chairmanship offices: Chairman-Elect, Chairman and Immediate Past-Chairman.

Board certified in healthcare management and an ACHE Fellow, Rubenstein previously served as an ACHE Governor from 2002 to 2006. Prior to becoming a Governor, he served as the ACHE Regent for the Army—Western Region from 2000 to 2002.

American College of Healthcare Executives

The American College of Healthcare Executives is an international professional society of more than 30,000 healthcare executives who lead hospitals, healthcare systems and other healthcare organizations. ACHE is known for its prestigious credentialing and educational programs and its annual Congress on Healthcare Leadership, which draws more than 4,000 participants each year. ACHE is also known for its journals, the Journal of Healthcare Management and Frontiers of Health Services Management, and its magazine, Healthcare Executive, as well as ground-breaking research and career development and public policy programs. ACHE's publishing division, Health Administration Press, is one of the largest publishers of books and journals on all aspects of health services management in addition to textbooks for use in college and university courses. Through such efforts, ACHE works toward its goal of being the premier professional society for healthcare leaders by providing exceptional value to its members.
